Miss E. B. Carey has again gone North.

M. Watkins has bought a place in Llano county and is about removing to it.

We don't see quite so many charming specimens of the fair sex passing our "sanctum" since the removal of Malone's store. Ladies, please remember that the greatest attractions of the East side—the FREE PRESS editor, printer and devil—still remain.

The Fair at Austin.

We are assured that the coming State Fair at Austin will be one of great and general interest. We hope to see a large attendance from this county.

Special Notice

Those desiring advertisements or local notices must hand them in on or before THURSDAY, in order to insure their insertion the same week.

We were pleased to greet our former treasurer, S. W. Yoe, Esq., of San Saba, on yesterday morning, who is here on a flying visit, and were glad to hear of his continued prosperity.

BRIGGS is now in receipt of his fall stock, comprising a full line of general merchandise. The ladies are specially invited to call and examine his new styles of dress goods, &c., &c.

It is presumed that the new Methodist parsonage may be made ready for occupancy from the proceeds of the late ice cream entertainments. We notice that the church and parsonage lot is being fenced.

We learn there is a prospect for several weddings this fall. It appears to us it is about time for a "revival" in that direction. A little stress of "hard times" should not repress the ardor of the Southern blood.

C. H. Egan

Would respectfully announce to his friends and the public that he has resumed business at the old stand, San Marcos Carriage Factory, where all work in his line, both woodwork and blacksmithing, will receive prompt attention.

Wanted

Threshed oats, cotton seed, flour, wheat, wheat bran, corn, corn meal, butter, eggs, chickens, &c., &c., on accounts due this office, or on new subscriptions.

Don't say any more you can't take your home paper because you have no money, when you can so easily pay "in trade."

THERE are an unusual number of our old steady-going subscribers in arrears with us. Now that money is some plentier, will they please remember us. We need that same article badly.

Don't Forget

That W. H. Harris & Co., at Kingsbury, are selling lumber at Austin prices. Sept. 13-1m.

LUMBER, shingles, etc may hereafter be had at Rau's old stand of

A. C. MOSHER.

DON'T FORGET!

DONALSON is selling out his entire Stock of Boots, Shoes and Hats at and below, Cost.

THROUGH a typographical error last week Donalson's Nectar Drips (finest syrup) was quoted 5c instead of 75c per gal.

MALONE informs us that business is running at the new stand quite up to his expectations. The spacious rooms are thronged with customers, and the force of the establishment so far have had quite as much as they could do.

Just Received!

A large lot of FRUIT CANDIES, stick candies, etc., etc. Call and examine.

FRITZ LANGE.

More Court.

We were premature in our announcement of the close of the District Court on Thursday last. It continued till Saturday evening, as also the grand jury, so as to give the recalcitrant witnesses time to "turn from the error of their ways," which they finally did. And somehow the grand jury increased the number of indictments from 30 to 53. Good for the lawyers, but an unfavorable symptom for the moral health of the community generally.

Photography.

I would respectfully inform the people of San Marcos and vicinity that I have opened a Photograph gallery in San Marcos and will remain a short time only. Those wishing work done in my line are respectfully solicited to call as early as possible. Having been engaged many years in the business, I guarantee to give entire satisfaction in the latest artistic styles.

Call and examine specimens. Gallery open from 9 o'clock A. M., to 4 P. M. No objection to light dress or cloudy weather.

Old pictures copied and enlarged if desired.

Very Respectfully,

TOM DALGLEISH.
